The Florida Department of Education is launching a pilot of the Florida Advanced Courses and Tests (FACT): U.S. History this 2026-2027 academic year. All partners are collaborating with secondary instructors to provide professional learning, gain feedback and monitor the status of the pilot. To be considered for this pilot, completed applications must be submitted by May 18, 2026, to FACT_INFO@fldoe.org. Each school may submit up to two teachers to participate in the pilot program.
