

The 2004-2005 Common Prerequisites Manual for public institutions is now available on FACTS.org. Along with the regular updates necessary each year, a few improvements have been made to make the Manual more user friendly. This includes the ability to review academic programs by alphabetical order and by CIP code order. The complete Manual can also be printed in both formats. Please see the bottom of the Table of Contents page for printing instructions.

To access the 2004-2005 Common Prerequisites Manual:

Log on to www.FACTS.org.

Scroll over “Advising Manuals” on the menu located on the left.

Click on “Common Prerequisite Manual” on the sub-menu.

Click on “Catalog Year 2004-2005”.

Previous catalog years (2001-2002 +) are also still available. For questions concerning Manual content, please contact Nell Kelly (850) 245-9703 or Lynda Page (850) 245-9693 with the Division of Colleges & Universities. For technical assistance, please contact the FACTS helpdesk at FACTSHELP@admin.usf.edu.
