MEMORANDUM

TO: Directors, Exceptional Student Education
Program Coordinators, Prekindergarten Programs for Children with Disabilities
Program Contacts, School District Early Childhood Programs
Directors, Student Services

FROM: Bambi J. Lockman

DATE: November 18, 2005

SUBJECT: Initiation of Communities of Practice Supporting Prekindergarten Programs for Children with Disabilities

Consistent with the Department's efforts to support effective programs, we are pleased to announce the opportunity for interested persons to become involved in Communities of Practice related to services for prekindeergarten children with disabilities and their families.

This opportunity is being offered through the work of the Technical Assistance and Training System (TATS) Project. This project is funded to the University of Central Florida by the Department of Education, Bureau of Exceptional Education and Student Services. Attached to this memo you will find an announcement that further describes Communities of Practice and provides web access to a link for registration.

If you have additional questions, you may contact TATS staff at 407/823-3058 or via electronic mail at tats@mail.ucf.edu. Additionally, you may contact Cathy Bishop, Project Liaison, Bureau of Exceptional Education and Student Services, at the information listed above.
