In our continuing effort to assist you with recruiting qualified education personnel, I am pleased to announce that the services of Teachers-Teachers.com will be available to you for the next three years. Teachers-Teachers.com is a nationwide, Web-based, educator recruitment service designed to help school systems overcome the challenges of finding the most qualified education personnel in all subject areas and recruiting them to our schools.

The Florida Department of Education has purchased a full membership to Teachers-Teachers.com for all Florida public school districts and charter schools from July 1, 2007, to June 30, 2010. District and charter school staff responsible for recruiting can use this service to:

- Post unlimited job openings for all education personnel including teachers, administrators, and related service providers;
- Conduct unlimited searches for candidates from a pool of over 20,000 certified candidates interested in teaching in Florida; and
- Send unlimited mass e-mails to targeted groups of candidates alerting them of job opportunities, incentive programs, and events.
