MEMORANDUM

TO: Providers of Adult Education and Family Literacy

FROM: Loretta Costin, Interim Chancellor

SUBJECT: Grants for Transition Programs for Adult Learners into Postsecondary Education, Conference Call for Potential Applicants

The Division of Career and Adult Education is sponsoring a conference call for potential applicants for grants to develop and/or improve programs that assist adults in transitioning from adult education to postsecondary education.

The Department of Education is seeking applications for proposed demonstration projects that focus on transition programs to support adults enrolled in Adult Basic Education (ABE), English as a Second Language (ESL), Adult Secondary Education (ASE), and/or General Educational Development (GED) instruction to enter postsecondary education.

These federal funds are authorized under the Workforce Investment Act, Incentive Grant. Total funding available through the competitive process is $900,000 for up to nine grant awards. Applications are due November 17, 2009.

The conference call is scheduled for October 23, 2009, 10:00 – 11:00 AM (EDT). Participants may call 1-888-808-6959, conference code 2459469.

Please visit the Career and Adult Education Web site at <http://www.fldoe.org/workforce/dwdgrants/> to locate information regarding this funding opportunity.

If you have any questions, please contact Ken Plummer at Ken.Plummer@fldoe.org or call 850.245.9047.
