SUBJECT: Corrected Technical Assistance for 2007-08 Reading Data Elements

It has come to our attention that there is a discrepancy between the Technical Assistance Paper for 2007-08 Reading Data Elements sent on September 28, 2007 and the Automated Student Data Elements Appendix L regarding the code to report Scholastic Reading Inventory (SRI) reading data. Districts using SRI should report using code 09 as stated in Appendix L rather than code 11 as indicated in the technical assistance paper sent September 28, 2007.

Please replace the technical assistance paper sent on September 28, 2007 with this updated version. We apologize for any confusion or inconvenience this may have caused.

If you have questions, please contact Nada Scott at Nada.Scott@fldoe.org or Laurie Lee at Laurie.Lee@fldoe.org.
